2. Can love be rich and yet I want?
Is love my judge, and yet I am condemned?
Thou plenty hast, yet me dost scant:
Thou mad a God, and yet thy power contemned.
That I do live, it is thy power:
That I desire it is thy worth:

3. If love doth make men's lives too sour,
Let me not love, nor live henceforth.
Die shall my hopes, but not my faith,
That you that of my fall may hearers be
May here despair, which truly faith,
I was more true to love than love to me.
